BEN JOHNSON RELATES FACTS Pertaining To the Public Institutions OF DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA How He Has Worked For Saving Money Regardless Of Religious Faith.

WORTH ATTENTION OF VOTERS

A large crowd greeted Congressman Ben Johnson at his announced speaking here Monday. He was introduced by Mr. G. B. Likens, who very aptly remarked that Mr. Johnson needed no introduction to an Ohio county audience.

Mr. Johnson said he was pleased to see such a representative audience present. Said his greatest ambition is to represent the sentiment and wishes of the people forming his constituency, regardless of political affiliation. Taxation, said Mr. Johnson, is one of the most important questions of the day, as it affects everybody. There are two main taxes—one to secure life and the other property. Liberty is already assured. The great money interests are sure to see that they are not overtaxed. They always have representatives present to see to this. The people also have their guardians in the person of their representative in Congress. Mr. Johnson said that in this he has always tried to do his whole duty.

Adverting to national politics, Mr. Johnson said that every promise made by Democrats had been fulfilled. Hughes' eternal criticism of President Wilson has brought the Republican Presidential candidate much ridicule. If Wilson is wrong in his policy, then the opposite of his actions must be the standpoint of Candidate Hughes, but the latter will not take a definite position. No persuasion can get Candidate Hughes to be specific in just what he would do or would have done if he were in President Wilson's place.

The recent State election in Maine, said Mr. Johnson, offers no discouraging features to Democrats. A careful estimate has been made and the Democrats got 33 per cent. more votes this time than they did four years ago and the Republicans only 4 per cent. This ratio carried out in the nation would re-elect President Wilson by an enormous majority. The nomination of Chief Justice Hughes was gladly acclaimed by Wall Street and stocks and bonds rose several points. At the same time and place a decline in prices of farm products was announced, showing whose interests were being favored.

One of the greatest strokes of statesmanship ever made, said Mr. Johnson, was when President Wilson by his quick and timely action prevented the threatened railroad strike, which would have stagnated every avenue of business and caused much hunger and want throughout the country. One of the most benevolent acts Congress ever did was to support President Wilson in his stand. Mr. Johnson told of the great benefits of Democratic legislation in Congress. Many relief measures were passed which had been neglected by the Republicans for years. Among these were the Child Labor law, the Good Roads law, the Rural Credits law, and many others. Would the Republicans repeal any of them? Ask any leading Republican.

Asking the indulgence of his audience for a few minutes, Mr. Johnson very modestly and briefly told of his own work in Congress. Of money wrongfully collected, all told Mr. Johnson has had turned into the Treasury of the United States more than two millions of dollars. These acts covered a period of years and represent various sums from different quarters which were stated by Mr. Johnson. At numerous times during Mr. Johnson's speech he was heartily applauded.

Along at the close of his speech Mr. Johnson referred to the attack recently made upon him, through the columns of the Hartford Republican, by Mr. James H. Williams, of Hartford, and who claims to be a Democrat. The fact that Mr. Johnson is a Catholic in religious belief is evidently the basis of these attacks. Mr. Johnson said that never before in a public speech had he discussed the matter of religious beliefs or the attacks made upon his religious convictions, and he only did so now because he had been assailed through public print. He asserted very positively that the Catholic Church was against the mixture of affairs of Church and State. A short while before the speaking commenced Mr. Johnson went over to the drug store of Mr. Williams and invited that gentleman to come up to the court house at 1:30 o'clock and hear his (Johnson's) speech; that he (Johnson) would answer every question Mr. Williams had asked or any others he cared to add to the list. Mr. Williams declined to come to the speaking on the excuse of lack of time. Mr. Williams had intimated in his charges that Congressman Johnson had discriminated between the Catholic and non-Catholic Churches in his acts of recovering money wrongfully appropriated to public institutions. The substance of what Mr. Johnson said on this subject and his views in the matter are contained in what follows:

Most municipalities have their own public hospitals and orphan asylums. There is not now and never has been any such institution in the District of Columbia.

About twelve years ago the District of Columbia bought a tract of land containing about fourteen acres upon which to build a public hospital for the benefit of those residing in the District of Columbia who were not able to pay their expenses in pay institutions.

Each and every one of the charitable institutions in the District of Columbia—whether they be Catholic or non-Catholic—has a part of the building set off for charitable patients. Those who are not able to pay are taken to those respective charitable wards and the board and treatment given to them while there is not paid for by anybody. When any one of these wards is full of non-paying patients, then they must be put into other rooms or wards in these various institutions and must be paid for by somebody.

The local authorities have found it to be cheaper to pay for the care of their pauper sick in other institutions than in one owned by the municipality. In consequence a building has never been erected upon the lot of ground which was acquired for that purpose about twelve years ago. They have taken the position that when a hospital is built and owned by the District of Columbia, that they will have to employ officers and help and nurses for the institution. Those officers, help and nurses will have to be paid all the year around whether the number of inmates be great or small. Under the present arrangement they do not have to pay these over-head charges. Instead, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia make contracts with the various hospitals in the District of Columbia and pay for these pauper patients that contract price which approximates the actual cost of caring for them.

In Washington there are a number of hospitals, some of which are Catholic and some of which are non-Catholic. The three Commissioners of the District of Columbia—all of whom are non-Catholic—distribute these pauper patients among these institutions according to the facilities then available at each of those institutions. In this way the Catholic institutions have some of these pauper patients sent to them. I do not know whether the figures given by Mr. Williams are correct or not. It is singular, however, that he takes the position that the food, clothing and warmth furnished by Catholic institutions to pauper patients should not be paid for, and that the same service rendered by non-Catholic institutions should be paid for.

Among the non-Catholic hospitals in the District of Columbia which have been paid on the same basis as the Catholic institutions have been paid, are the Casualty, the Columbia, the Emergency, the Freedman's, the Garfield, the George Washington, the Tuberculosis and others. The following is a further list of the public institutions in the District of Columbia:

Non-Catholic Institutions.
Municipal Lodging House,
House of Detention,
Board of Charities,
Washington Asylum,
Home for Aged and Infirm,
Columbia Hospital,
National Homeopathic Hospital,
Central Dispensary and Emergency Hospital,
Washington Home for Incurables,
Georgetown University Hospital,
George Washington University Hospital,
Tuberculosis Hospital,
Board of Children's Guardians,
National Association for the relief of destitute colored women and children,
Temporary Home for Ex-Union Soldiers and Sailors,
Florence Crittenden Hope and Help Mission,
Southern Relief Society,
Garfield Hospital,
Children's Hospital,
Eastern Dispensary,
Columbia Institute for the Deaf.
Catholic Institutions.
Providence Hospital,
Saint Ann's Infant Asylum.

The money which I have caused to be paid into the public Treasury is money which was gotten without valuable consideration being returned for it. In other words, it was money gotten for nothing.

I suppose that Mr. Williams thinks it would be equitable and fair to compel the Catholic institutions to refund the money with which they bought food, clothing, medicine, coal and the other necessities of life which were furnished to the pauper sick in the District of Columbia, and at the same time to permit the non-Catholic institutions to retain the even larger amount of money which they have been paid for rendering the same sort of service to those who were too poor to pay for it themselves.

If any hospitals are to be compelled to return the money with which they bought food, clothing, medicine, coal and the other necessities of life for these poor, then those articles for which they paid out their good money should be returned to them. In other words, they have rendered the very best consideration for the money which they have gotten.

The one who has filled Mr. Williams so full of misinformation evidently did not tell him that while Congress did appropriate the money for the expenses enumerated by him, yet the money so appropriated was not out of the Treasury of the United States but out of the funds belonging to the District of Columbia.

The District of Columbia has no Treasurer. That office was abolished by a Republican Congress in 1874. Since that time all the taxes and other revenues collected by the District of Columbia are deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the District of Columbia, and, under the law, can not be paid out except Congress authorize it to be done through appropriation bills.

Since 1878 the people throughout the United States have been compelled to pay one-half of all the expenses of the District of Columbia. The hospital expenses about which Mr. Williams has so ignorantly written, are also paid on that half-and-half basis.

Since I have been in Congress it has been my main effort to relieve the people in Kentucky and the other States from the payment of one-half of those expenses.

The Catholic hospitals in the District of Columbia as well as the non-Catholic hospitals in the District of Columbia have annually paid to them one-half of those expenses which are contributed by the people of Kentucky and in the other States.

Since during the last five years I have made such a hard fight to relieve the people of the States of the payment of any part of this money, it follows as a natural consequence that my fight has been to relieve the people throughout the Union from paying anything to either the Catholic hospitals or to the non-Catholic hospitals. My policy has been to treat all these institutions just alike.

I am not in favor of having the people in Kentucky taxed to take care of the poor people in the District of Columbia, when the people in the District of Columbia are abundantly and amply able to take care of their own poor.

There is another thing which no doubt Mr. Williams doesn't know and of which his bigoted informant did not advise him even if he knew, and that is, that the appropriations for these various institutions are not made in a bill which comes from the committee of which I have the honor to be chairman. The District of Columbia appropriation bill is handled by a committee of which Hon. Robert N. Page, of North Carolina, is chairman. Mr. Page is a non-Catholic.

Mr. Williams complains that the things about which he finds fault commenced in 1866. At that time I was only eight years old. He should not hold me responsible for any part of a situation which commenced then. He now proposes to vote against me because this money is being paid to Catholic institutions and join a party which is directly responsible for the origin and continuance of that very thing.

During the last few years I have been endeavoring to prevent the people of the United States from being taxed anything whatever towards the payment of these or any other expenses of the District of Columbia. During my fight against this plan I have had the support of most of the Democrats and the support of only one prominent Republican and that was Judge Prouty, of Iowa. Mr. Williams now proposes to join a party which insists through its leaders that the people of the United States should be taxed to help pay all—either the large or small—expenses of the District of Columbia, notwithstanding the fact that property in the District of Columbia is taxed at a smaller rate than it is in Kentucky and the other States.

In the present Congress the Republican leader, Mr. Mann, is out-and-out in favor of having the people in the States taxed to pay one-half of this. Mr. Williams proposes to oppose me and join a party which is responsible for the very things about which he complains. In his maddened bigotry he gives me no credit at all for the millions which I have caused to be paid back into the Treasury, but proposes to help elect a Republican to Congress in order that he may vote with Republican leader Mann, and the Republican party in Congress, to continue the very thing about which he complains.

TARGET ELEVEN MILES DISTANT HIT FIVE TIMES

Washington, Sept. 16.—A new world's record in naval gunnery has been made by the new superdreadnought Pennsylvania, the Navy Department announced to-night. Credit for the feat is given to the big battleship's twelve fourteen-inch rifles, mounted as a main battery in four turrets, which on a simultaneous discharge in a recent trial registered five hits on a small target 11 miles away. At that distance a target is not visible to the gunners.

Records of the highest scores ever made under similar circumstances have been examined by naval officers, but none equaling that of the Pennsylvania has been found.

The Pennsylvania is the first vessel to have its entire main battery mounted three guns to a turret, and her performance is declared by ordinance and construction officers to be the final answer to critics opposing the three-gun turret system.

The Pennsylvania and Oklahoma at the present time are undergoing their final test, and Navy Department reports say, are fulfilling the required specifications in a highly satisfactory manner.

GEN. BASIL DUKE DEAD —RESULT OF OPERATION

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—Gen. Basil W. Duke is dead. Telegrams containing the news of General Duke's death at the Presbyterian hospital in New York City were received early this morning by his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Henning, and by Louisville friends.

The death of General Duke followed the amputation of his right foot. The operation was performed at the New York hospital three weeks ago. The body of General Duke will be taken to Lexington for burial beside his wife. The body will arrive there at 8 o'clock Monday morning. It will be met by an escort of Confederate veterans and taken to the home of his brother-in-law, Col. R. C. Morgan, where it will remain until the funeral, which will be held at Christ Church Cathedral, that city, at 2:30 p. m.

DAVID LUBIN IS NOW FOR WILSON Rural Credit Founder Is Very Sanguine. WILSON COUNTRY'S SAFEGUARD Declares Lubin—"Not Afraid of Clique That Has Held Back Nation."

IS FOURTH BIG G. O. P. REBEL

New York, Sept. 16.—David Lubin, founder of the International Institute of Agriculture and father of the rural credits movement in America, has joined the list of prominent Republicans openly espousing the re-election of President Wilson. Within a fortnight Thomas A. Edison, Luther Burbank and Henry Ford, all Republicans, have made similar declarations.

None of them can see sufficient reason for rejecting Wilson or for substituting Hughes. Each one in substance advises his fellow Americans that in his opinion it is no time to swap horses crossing the stream of the greatest crisis in the world's history.

David Lubin is a wealthy California farmer. His interest in securing a square deal for the farmer led him to make research abroad, and out of his efforts grew the International Institute of Agriculture of Rome, Italy. This unique institution does for the staples of agriculture of the world what the American Chamber of Commerce does for the products of the American manufacturer.

Before sailing to-day for Rome, Mr. Lubin said:

"In the application of business methods of distribution, America, until the present Administration, was about 150 years behind Germany and several decades behind the rest of Europe. And yet in the very thing in which America is backward, she should lead the world. She does not, because a clique of special interests dictated public opinion and controlled legislation through the bosses of the Republican party; so cleverly have they worked that the average man is hypnotized, his critical faculties are dulled. "President Wilson is neither fooled nor led by this crowd. He is tireless, patient, farseeing. He has a historic sense of the past, a sympathetic sense of the present and a prophetically spiritual sense of the future. While his head is above the clouds, his feet are always upon the earth. He is neither a dreamer nor a cabbage. He is idealistic on the one side, on the other practical. He is a good business man. It is a pleasure and a satisfaction to do business with him. "I found Mr. Roosevelt a good fellow. I find Mr. Wilson a good President. I like Mr. Roosevelt; I admire President Wilson. President Wilson brings a scholarly mind to business. He knows that good politics and good economics are the same thing. He is fearless; in all my relations with him, direct and indirect, I fail to find anything or anybody he is afraid of."

Hotels To Ask 10 CENTS FOR BREAD AND BUTTER

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 15.—"Bread and butter, 10 cents." Menus of leading hotels and restaurants within a few days will bear this item. The cafe and hotel men blame it on the soaring price of wheat.

From telegrams received by the local organization it is apparent that the Middle West are expected to make the plan general.

RECORD CROP IS GROWN IN THE BURLEY DISTRICT

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 16.—"This year's crop of tobacco will be the biggest crop that the Burley district has had since the bumper crop of 1912," according to the statement of Col. John D. Walker, prominent tobacco and cigar manufacturer of Maysville, who was in Lexington yesterday. Col. Walker formerly resided in Lexington, but several years ago went to Maysville, where he and several capitalists of that city established a manufacturing plant of which he is the official head.

During the last thirty days he has been over the greater part of the Burley district and he says the tobacco crop is exceptionally fine, the acreage large and the weight all that could be desired. Growers, manufacturers, speculators and warehousemen, Col. Walker says, need not complain of a shortage of the weed this year, as there will be a sufficient crop for all of them to get profit out of it, if handled properly.

A SPECIAL NOTICE TO MEMBERS OF A. S. OF E.

Hartford, Ky., Sept. 18, 1916. To the Tobacco Growers of Ohio County:—You are requested to meet at Hartford, in the court house, Tuesday, Sept. 26th, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. to discuss matters of vital importance.

Every one who has pooled with the A. S. of E. is especially requested to be present. Every friend or former member of the organization is most cordially invited to come.

It seems that the jeweled hand of greed has once more selected us for its victim. We have good reasons to believe that schemes are working to force us to take our tobacco to the Loose Leaf Floors at Owensboro, Ky.

The Equity tobacco warehouse at Hartford, Ky., has been wrested from our control. You know what that means for us. If this is, as we fully believe, another scheme of the trusts, it is a cruel, merciless thrust at the happiness of our homes and the welfare of our loved ones.

The battle is on, the hour has struck! Shall we live or shall we die? Shall we rise or shall we fall yet lower? The best interest of yourself, your wife and all your loved ones, your neighbor and his loved ones, calls you to lay aside your burden for one day and come to Hartford, Ky., and let us counsel together.

M. P. Johnson, L. N. Robertson, S. B. Robertson, F. K. Moseley and S. R. Blanton will address the people. Remember, Hartford, Tuesday, Sept. 26th, 10:00 o'clock a. m.

108-YEAR-OLD FATHER OF BABY HURT BY MULE

Hazard, Ky., Sept. 16.—"Uncle" John Shell, 108 years old, was seriously injured this week in Leslie county when his mule fell with him while he was returning from Hyden, the county seat. Mr. Shell had ridden from his home on Greasy creek to Hyden.

Mr. Shell was born in 1808, in Tennessee, and went to what afterward was Leslie county, Kentucky, when he was about 12 years old. His wife died less than two years ago at the age of 106 years.

Mr. Shell soon afterward married again and has a baby at his home.

Runaway Boy Killed.

Danville, Ky., Sept. 15.—Louis Ward, 15 years old, and Johnny Jones, 12, who ran away from their homes in Chattanooga, came to a tragic halt in Danville when Ward was killed. The lads were stealing a ride on a Queen & Crescent freight train when in the Danville yards they lost their balance and fell. Ward was so terribly mangled that his body had to be gathered up in fragments by Coroner William Zimmerman. He was ground into an unrecognizable mass. Jones was not seriously injured. The body of Ward was prepared for burial and sent to his prostrated parents in Chattanooga.

OUR NEW COINS READY FOR USE

Change Of Design Due
Every 25 Years.

UNIQUE PATTERNS EMPLOYED

Silver Half Dollars, Quarters and Dimes Will Present Different Faces.

A LITTLE COMMENT ON COINS

During the next 10 days the newly minted half dollars, quarters and dimes which are to replace the old ones will be distributed throughout the country.

There is a national law which requires that there shall be a change in the design of all silver coins every 25 years. In accordance with this rule there has been going on gradual preparations for the change, and the Government is now ready to trade old coins for new, after the example of the lamp vendor of the Arabian tale. Only there is no trick or subterfuge as to the coin; in this modern trade the public gets the best of it.

For several months the mints at Denver, San Francisco and Philadelphia have been minting the newly designed coins at the rate of $40,000 worth a day. That sounds like an immense amount of small change, but it takes an immense amount to supply the population of this big country.

The new half dollar will have on one side the Goddess of Liberty holding a bunch of olive branches, with the old legend, "In God We Trust" above her. On the other side a spreadeagle is posed on a rock, holding in its talons what the designers say is an oak twig. Over its head are the words "United States of America;" at its feet "Half Dollar."

The quarters are more unique. On one side is a figure of a woman coming through a gate in a wall; on the other side is an eagle in full flight. We are left to guess at the significance of the woman and the gate—that is, if we keep a quarter by us long enough to do any guessing.

The new dimes will be quite different from the old ones. On one side there is a woman's head, with "Liberty" above and the minting date below. On the other a bunch of rods and an ax bound together after the fashion of the "fates" borne of old by the Roman licitors. Below this is the motto: "E Pluribus Unum."

As the new coins are sent out there will be a gradual in-getting of the old ones to be reminted, so now is the time for the numismatist to put away a few samples for future collections.

For the moralist there is a whole story behind each of these new coins. They come as clean as new souls to take their share in the great drama of life; they will lie in miladi's silken purse and in the ragged pocket of the street beggar. They will go clean from honest hands, and they will figure in the tainted loot of thieves. They will go up to God's high altars in collection plates, and they will be the prize for which men fight and kill, and the lure for which they sell their souls.

Money—the agency of angels or the temptation of grinning devils! Think what use you will make of the new, clean coins the Government is sending out to you this month. There is a deep vein of introspection behind the question as you turn the coin in your hands.—[Memphis Commercial Appeal.]

MILLIONAIRE COLLECTED PENSION OF $25 A MONTH

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 15.—An inventory of the estate of the late Colonel James Gay Butler, Civil War veteran, who died August 22, which was filed to-day in the Probate Court, showed that his estate is worth $4,150,000.

The inventory also disclosed that despite his millions Colonel Butler collected a pension of $25 a month from the United States Government. Listed in the inventory was a check for $75 issued by the Treasurer of the United States, covering the quarterly pension due August last. It is estimated that Colonel Butler's pension since the close of the Civil War aggregated about $15,000.

Although the par value of Colonel Butler's stockholdings was little more than $3,000,000 most of the stocks were worth on the market more than their par value.

BRUSILOFF SAYS WAR WILL STOP NEXT AUGUST

London, Sept. 15.—Gen. Brusiloff, in an interview with the correspondent of the Daily Chronicle at the Russian front, predicts the end of the war by August next.

"The Austria-Hungarian army, assailed from all sides," he said, "won't be able to stand much longer before the hordes of enemies who are hurling themselves against it and preparing to increase the vigor of their blows. The intervention of Rumania is an event of the first order."

"I am no prophet; the future is in God's hands. But if I had to make a prophecy, I should be inclined to think that the month of August, 1917, might see the end of our memorable work."

"The present war is one which it is impossible for the Allies to lose, although a great deal remains to be accomplished. A successful result is already in our hands; the game is already won."

JOINED A CIRCUS—WAS KILLED BY AN ELEPHANT

Bristol, Tenn., Sept. 15.—Walter Eldridge, 23 years old, whose ambition for animal training led him to join a circus, to-day was slain by a female elephant at Kingsport, Tenn.

Infuriated when struck on the head with a stick, the monster suddenly coiled her trunk about Eldridge's body and lifted him 10 feet in the air, then dashed his body to the ground. She then pinioned Eldridge to the earth and sank her tusks entirely through his body. Farmers armed with revolvers rushed to the rescue and a dozen shots were fired into the elephant, but apparently without effect. Eldridge was dead before a physician could reach him. The elephant's keeper subdued her.

ADMIRAL DEWEY GIVES HIS VIEWS

On Our Navy, Present And
As Contemplated.

AGAINST A FLOOD OF CENSURE

Degenerated Into Abuse, He Reviews Condition Of Our Naval Defense.

VIEWS ON DEMOCRATIC BILL

The Navy Department seems always to be a political storm center. All recall the bitterness of the Sampson-Schley controversy. Just now the Wilson administration of naval affairs is under bitter partisan criticism.

Against the flood of censure degenerated into abuse, which sensible men have already discounted to something like its real worth, is opposed the deliberate opinion of Admiral Dewey. He reviews the state of the United States Navy and the Democratic Navy Bill in a lengthy interview, an extract from which is given below. Against the word of the hero of Manila Bay, that of all the politicians in the world will not prevail with the American people.

Admiral Dewey says:

"The attacks that have been made upon the navy are as false as many of them are shameful. It is not a junk heap. There is no demoralization. Both in material and personnel we are more efficient to-day than ever before. Our ships are as good as any, our officers are as good as any, and our enlisted men are the finest in the world."

"It is true we have not enough ships or enough men. But navies are not built in a day. Congress, after all, expresses public sentiment in large degree, and the reason we dropped was because the people wanted the drop. The recommendations of the general board went unheeded because they were not backed up by public opinion. Until 1914 people were thinking in terms of world peace. It is different to-day, and it is to-day that should concern us."

Admiral Dewey picked up a copy of the Democratic Navy Bill, spread it before him, hesitated, as if to measure his words, and said:

"This is the best bill ever passed by any Congress. It takes the five-year program of the general board and changes it into a three-year program. It will restore us to second place and enable the United States to meet on equal terms any power in the world save one."

LOSS OF 3,375,000 MEN SUFFERED BY GERMANY

London, Sept. 15.—German casualties during the month of August, according to a compilation here from the German casualty lists, totaled 240,000.

This brings the German total since the beginning of the war, as compiled from the same sources, to 3,375,000. These figures include all the German nationalities, but do not include the naval and colonial casualties.

The detailed figures for the month of August follow:

Killed, 42,700; prisoners, 1,800; missing, 42,900; wounded, 153,500; total, 240,900.

Detailed figures for the period of the war to the end of August, 1916:

Killed, 832,000; prisoners, 165,000; missing, 234,000; wounded, 2,144,000; total, 3,375,000.

What would he give for the coffee you serve?

Like a million other women, you can serve coffee that he would give most anything to have—coffee which starts the day "right" for all.

Everyone loves the rich flavor of Arbuckles' Coffee. Of all the coffees in America, today, it is by far the most popular!

One woman says, "My husband used to swallow his coffee and hurry off. Now we have Arbuckles' and you'd think it was Sunday the way he lingers over his breakfast."

Serve it in your home—see how the little early morning wrinkles disappear.

Until you try Arbuckles' you will never know what a difference good coffee can make in your home.

Arbuckles' Coffee is untouched by human hands. It is weighed, and sealed by machines,—machines which Arbuckle Bros. originated and which experts say are the most efficient in the world.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

For President—Woodrow Wilson.
For Vice Pres't.—T. R. Marshall.
For Congress—Hon. Ben Johnson.

Candidate Hughes, in a speech at Plattsburg, N. Y., last week, assailed the Wilson administration for failure to reduce the high cost of living, like the Mexican matter, was one of several serious troubles which Mr. Wilson inherited from a Republican administration. Of course Candidate Hughes—as is his custom in all his criticisms of President Wilson—failed to state how he would go about reducing the high cost of living. The increased cost of living. We would love awful well to know just how Candidate Hughes would do it.

Paraphrasing a sentiment deeply associated with Holy Writ, President Wilson declared in a talk at New London, Conn., last week that the regeneration of Mexico "must come from within." It was a trite saying, aptly spoken. Not boastfully but in a matter of fact way, Mr. Wilson said he was perhaps more familiar with the situation in Mexico than his hearers realized. There can be no doubt of this. Criticizing President Wilson in the Mexican matter is about like a little child telling a railroad engineer what to do as he mounts his cab.

The Journal of Labor, published at Louisville and mouthpiece of the laboring interests in Kentucky, is definite in its support of Democratic policies this year. It reminds its readers of the splendid legislation enacted by a Democratic Congress in behalf of the laboring man and speaking of Candidate Hughes it says: "If we may read Judge Hughes between the lines, we cannot fail to be convinced that Samuel Gompers made no mistake in saying Judge Hughes was not friendly to the cause of labor—that his trend of mind was all the other way."

Maine went Republican in her State election last week, as has been her custom for many years, with few exceptions. Only one time in her history has she failed to go Republican during a Presidential year and that was four years ago. The Democrats hoped to carry Maine again this year, but their expectations were blasted. There is just one lesson in this for Democrats—the Moose "came back" in Maine. Democrats must stand very close together to prevent this same result in November. Every Democrat should keep this in mind and work accordingly.

Perhaps never before in the history of politics have there been so many public announcements of eminent and distinguished men that they have seen fit to change their political faith and declare themselves as in hearty support of the Democratic candidate for President. These frank and honest declarations by some of the foremost thinkers of the day, surely mean something. They show that President Wilson's governmental policies have taken hold upon the hearts of the people, and regardless of former political affiliation, the great mass of the voters are with him.

We notice that several of our State newspaper exchanges have bitten at the bait of Ringling Bros. circus to print about eight or ten dollars worth of advertising for two admission tickets to the show, which is to hold forth at another place, some distance away. In doing this these newspapers not only cheapen their own publication, but lower the prestige of newspaper advertising values everywhere. It also revives the damaging adage, "anything to fill up the paper." The Herald received this same proposition, but it went the way of spring poetry. Of course we don't blame Ringling Bros. for trying to get good advertising for a little or nothing.

HE'S RIGHT ON THE JOB EVERY HOUR OF THE DAY

With the patience of Job and the wisdom of Moses, which surpassed that of Solomon, Woodrow Wilson is on the job morning till night and back around the dial. He has no eight-hour day; he's giving nearer 24 hours to the most numerous, perplexing and vital problems that ever beset a President. He has kept us out of the European war and out of war with Mexico, and now we owe him an unpayable debt of gratitude for averting a nation-wide strike. Let the storm of Republican wrath roar and the waves of snarling criticism beat as they will; he is as unshaken as the Rock of Ages in the hearts of the American people.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

The Ohio Circuit Court met in court hall last Monday for the two-weeks September term, with Judge R. W. Slack presiding and Commonwealth's Attorney C. E. Smith and County Attorney C. M. Crowe present. The September term having been set apart for civil business only, no grand jury was impaneled.

The following named gentlemen were empaneled as petit jurors: William Acton, Peter Shown, S. J. Hawkins, James Hoover, P. B. Taylor, Ab Westerfield, James McSherry, Alley Graham, William Boyd, Granvil Baize, Rufus Williams, R. H. Raines, Henry Carter, Shelby Rock, O. P. Raines, Arthur Smith, J. W. Thomas, Isaac Cooper, H. Poisoned Cabbage Fatal.
Louis, Ky., Sept. 15.—Mrs. Jas. Price and four children of her family, living near Graves Shoals in Lawrence county, are dead as a result, it is believed, of eating boiled cabbage which it is thought was either poisoned before cooking or boiled in a vessel that generated poison.

Mrs. Price became very ill several hours after partaking of the cabbage and died the next morning. The four children who ate of the cabbage were attacked by the same symptoms and died in agony within a few hours. The husband and a 2-months-old baby who did not eat of the cabbage are the only members of the family who survive.

Big Purchase of Lambs.
R. C. Chambers, of Sardis, has finished delivering his purchase of lambs, which amounted to 12,000. These lambs cost something like $7 per head, or $84,000, which was disbursed among the farmers for lambs. Sheep raising certainly does pay at these unusually high prices.—[Maysville Bulletin.]

REVENUE BILL IS NOW INTERESTING

Where Burden of Payment Will Fall

UNDER NEW MEASURE ADOPTED

Incomes, Corporations, Inheritance, Munitions, Spirits, Amusements, Etc.

A RECENT ACT OF CONGRESS

A study of the revenue bill passed by Congress just before adjournment, and which was signed by the President on the last day of the session, has resulted in the preparation, officially, of a summary of the main new features of the bill, which should be of much interest. The summary touches the subject on which tax increases are based. The features of the bill are as follows:

Income Tax—Normal income tax increased from 1 to 2 per cent. Exemptions allowed on incomes of $3,000 for single persons and $4,000 for married. Additional tax levied on incomes above $60,000. Incomes of $60,000 to $80,000 taxed 3 per cent.; $80,000 to $100,000, 4 per cent.; $100,000 to $150,000, 5 per cent. Graduated scale levied to 13 per cent. on incomes between $150,000 and $2,000,000.

Corporation Taxes—Net income tax raised from 1 to 2 per cent. Applies to all corporations, joint-stock companies, insurance companies, but not partnerships.

Corporations, Joint Stock Companies, Associations—Fifty cents for each $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits, including investments. Exemption of $99,000 allowed.

Inheritance.—Net estate of decedent, whether a resident or nonresident, is taxable as follows: Net estate not in excess of $50,000, 1 per cent.; to $150,000, 2 per cent.; up to $250,000, 3 per cent.; up to $450,000, 4 per cent.; up to $1,000,000, 5 per cent.; up to $2,000,000, 6 per cent.; up to $3,000,000, 7 per cent.; to $4,000,000, 8 per cent.; to $5,000,000, 9 per cent.; exceeding $5,000,000 10 per cent.

Munitions.—Manufacturers of explosives, shells, torpedoes, firearms of any kind, small arms, electric motor boats, submarines, taxed 1½ per cent of entire net profits.

Spirits.—Beer and other similar fermented liquor, $1.50 a thirty-one gallon barrel.

Wines.—Still, 8 cents a gallon; fortifying wines, 55 per cent gallon; champagne or spreading wine, 3 cents on each one-half pint or fraction; artificially carbonated wine, 2½ cents each one-half pint or fraction; other liquors, cordials or similar compounds, three-fourths of 1 cent to 1½ cents each one-half pint or fraction thereof.

Brokers.—Stock brokers, $30; pawn brokers, $50; ship brokers, $20; customhouse brokers, $10.

Amusements.—Theater proprietors—seating capacity 150 or less, $25; seating capacity, 250 to 600, $50; 600 to 800, $75; more than 800, $100. In towns of 5,000 or less inhabitants the payment is one-half the above. Halls or armories rented occasionally are exempted. Circus proprietor, $100. Other shows for money, $10, excepting street fair, tax is $100. Exemptions—chautauquas, lecture lyceums, agricultural or industrial fairs, exhibitions under auspices of religious or charitable associations. Bowling alleys, billiard rooms (except in private homes), $5 for each alley or table.

Tobacco.—Tobacco, cigars, cigarette manufacturers—Manufacturers' sales less than 50,000 pounds, $3; up to 100,000, $6; up to 200,000, $12; exceeding 200,000 pounds, 8 cents per 1,000 pounds. Cigar manufacturers, sales under 50,000 cigars, $2; up to 100,000, $3; up to 200,000, $6; up to 400,000, $12; exceeding 400,000, 5 cents per 100,000. Cigarette manufacturers, tax 8 cents per 10,000 cigarettes.

New Fall Merchandise

Every department is loaded to the guards with standard value-giving merchandise—merchandise that would stand a liberal advance in price and still give you perfect satisfaction for the price you pay.

Everybody knows by this time that higher prices for merchandise is inevitable and the end is not yet. As the season advances still higher prices must prevail.

We have taken every advantage possible of the market in providing this enormous stock.

We will make it as light as possible on you in supplying the season's needs. But we would advise as early shopping as possible. The saving will be much more than you anticipate.

Remember, we have added another store to our list. Four big stores give us a buying power second to none in the State of Kentucky.

Our policy is ONE PRICE to everybody. We recommend nothing only standard merchandise to our customers. We sell everything on as close a margin as legitimate merchandise will allow, trusting to a big volume of business to make us money.

These policies we inaugurated with the idea of placing our interests and our customers on an equal basis, and by extending to them this liberal consideration and protection, we merit a more liberal share of their patronage.

Now We Are Ready

For your consideration and inspection of this mammoth stock of Fall and Winter necessities.

NEW MILLINERY of fashion's latest decree.

LADIES' COAT SUITS in the most stunning styles of the season.

MEN'S SUITS in models and fabrics that are the most pleasing.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES for the women—new and up-to-the-minute.

KING QUALITY SHOES for men are dressy and serviceable.

Every item of dress for men, women and children is here in sufficient variety to please anybody, and everybody is invited to come here and see for themselves just what we are doing for the trade.

ONLY SISTER OF THE PRESIDENT IS DEAD

Mrs. Anne Howe Was Ill For Week and Death Not Unexpected.

New London, Conn., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Anne E. Howe, only sister of President Woodrow Wilson, died at her apartments in a local hotel early to-day. Mrs. Howe had been extremely ill for about a week with peritonitis and the end had been expected at any moment for the last two days.

The President was informed a week ago of his sister's critical condition and on Monday came here, returning Wednesday to Shadow Lawn. Mrs. Howe had been too weak to recognize him. He was kept constantly informed of her condition and when death came a message was sent to him.

Mrs. Howe came from her Philadelphia home in the early summer with her niece, Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, stopping at a summer hotel in the suburbs. Her health had long been impaired. When her condition became a matter of grave concern, Mrs. Howe was brought to a city hotel.

With her were her two sons, George Howe, of North Carolina, and Wilson Howe, of Richmond, Va., and a daughter, Mrs. M. M. Wilson, of Philadelphia, besides Miss Wilson.

There will be no funeral services here, the body being taken later in the day by train to Columbia, S. C., where it will arrive about noon on Monday. President Wilson will join the funeral party at some point not yet determined.

At Columbia services will be held in the First Presbyterian church, and the burial will be in the graveyard adjacent to the edifice.

All Engagements Cancelled.
Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 16.—Cancelling all political engagements for the first part of next week. President Wilson to-day made plans to go to Columbia, S. C., to-morrow afternoon, to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Anne E. Howe, who died this morning at New London, Conn.

On last Saturday the managers or stockholders of the Hartford Tobacco Warehouse leased the property for the coming season to the Ross-Vaughan Tobacco Co. of Owensboro. The latter volunteered a bond that they would put up tobacco here the coming season. They were the highest bidders for the lease. Due notice had been given that the property would be leased on last Saturday. There are over 60 stockholders in the property and the tobacco factory was erected a number of years ago.

Word has been received in Hartford to the effect that former Lieutenant Clarence B. Shown, of Company H, K. N. G., has been appointed Captain of the company to succeed Captain James M. DeVeece, and that former Sergeant Estill L. Barnett has been appointed First Lieutenant. The latter has been detailed to instruct recruits at Ft. Thomas. Members of H company seem to be well pleased with their position on the border. It is expected that they will be put on active patrol duty in a short time.

EVERYTHING IS READY FOR BIG COUNTY FAIR

Everything is ready for the Ohio County Fair which opens here tomorrow under the most auspicious circumstances. Many improvements have been made around the grounds and the track is in better condition than it has been in years. Most of the "privilege" people have arrived and are fitting up their stands. A goodly number of horses are here for the various entries—races and show rings. There will be entertainment of various kinds and nothing will be lacking to make the crowd enjoy themselves. Ladies and children are admitted free to-morrow, the first day. The Fair Company has taken especial pains to provide comfort and amusement for the large crowds and everything now points to the biggest and best Fair ever held on the grounds.

The New Goods for the Autumn Season Now Occupy All Departments of Our Store.

In the two weeks just closing the stocks of the store have undergone a complete change. Summer goods have slipped quietly away and the many sections now present fall and winter merchandise—fresh, new, fascinating.

We shall maintain our reputation of the past twenty-eight years—that of moderation in price.

In spite of a flood of ill-made, trashy productions, caused by existing market conditions, our patrons will be offered merchandise of intrinsic worth.

Women's New Fall Coat Suits are arriving in great numbers.

Fullness and soft lines seem to dominate both Suits and Coats. Suits made of Serge, Gaberdine and Poplin seem to be used. Prices from $10 to $22.50.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

AT FRANKLIN THIS YEAR

Commencing Next Wednesday,

September 27, and Lasting

Over Sunday.

The seventy-first annual session of the Louisville Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will convene at Franklin, Ky., on Wednesday morning, September 27, with Bishop W. B. Murrah, of Jackson, Miss., presiding, which will continue until Monday at noon, October 2. This will be the first time Bishop Murrah has presided over this conference. This conference takes in all the western half of the State, including Louisville, except the Kentucky Purchase, and has seven districts and above five hundred and fifty churches.

One of the most important matters to be disposed of is the proposed union of the Northern and Southern branches of the Methodist Church. Since the split many years ago, chiefly over slavery, a union has been projected several times, but never materialized. Now the prospect seems bright for reuniting the two branches, and it is believed the vote in the Louisville Conference will be practically unanimous for it. Franklin last entertained the conference in 1904. The town is noted for its hospitality and strong Methodist following, and this time it will open its doors most cordially to the visitors. Rev. C. F. Wimberly is pastor of the Franklin church, and as such he will be the official host.

The matter in which most interest really centers, not only of those actually attending the conference, but the membership throughout the conference territory, will be the assignment of the pastors of the various churches. Under the Methodist plan this is altogether in the hands of the presiding bishop, whose consulting cabinet is formed of the seven presiding elders having supervision of the seven districts. Nearly every year there are some surprising changes made of pastors, and this year promises to show the usual number, at least, of such. Under the Methodist law a pastor can remain only four years consecutively at one place, and this will cause a number of changes this year. Rev. Napier has been on the Hartford circuit three years, doing splendid service, and in all likelihood he will be returned for another year.

The Louisville pastors who will be forced to move this year on account of having served their four years, are as follows: Rev. Samuel M. Miller, D. D., pastor of the Broadway Methodist church; Dr. R. B. Grider, of Lander Memorial; Rev. George E. Foskett, of Beechmont Mission; Rev. S. H. Lovelace, Jefferson Street church; Rev. H. R. Short, of the Oakdale Mission; Rev. W. T. Miller, of the Rivers Memorial; and Rev. J. W. Weldon, of West Broadway church.

The appointments will be read out just before conference adjourns on Monday, October 2, at noon.

THE PIG AND CORN CLUB BOYS RETURN FROM FAIR

Ohio county was represented at the State Fair by John Allen Wilson, who won the first prize here in the county in the Pig Club contest, and Delbert Newcomb, who was selected to represent the Corn Club boys by lot. Both of them report a big time at the Fair. John Allen Wilson won third prize at State Fair with his pig in the Duroc class, for which he got a premium of $2.00 and afterward sold his pig for a nice sum to a breeder of Louisville. She created a great deal of attention at the Fair and he said to John Allen's credit, he was very attentive to his pig while there. Both boys were well pleased with their trip which no doubt will be of great value to them in their future life. They had to attend lectures and judging of stock every morning and got a great deal of useful information in this. Ohio county should be proud of her club work with the boys and put forth larger efforts another year in this great work. So try again, boys.

PRESIDENT USES BIBLE DOCTRINE

In Commenting On the Mexican Trouble.

"REGENERATION" MUST COME

From Within, He Says, In Commenting On Mexico's Governmental Policy.

PLANS CIVIL REORGANIZATION

New London, Conn., Sept. 14.—President Wilson lent his personal touch to-day to aid the efforts of the American-Mexican Joint Commission in seeking a permanent foundation of sympathy and understanding upon which may rest the future relations of the United States and Mexico.

Putting aside for one hour his own cares and his vigil at the bedside of his sister, who is dying here, Mr. Wilson exchanged calls with Gen. Carranza's representatives. It was the first time during his Administration that the Executive had dealt personally with a representative of the Mexican de facto Government, and the significance of this fact was not lost upon either the American or the Mexican commissioners.

For the first time also representatives of Gen. Carranza received directly from the man in whose hands perhaps lies the fate of their country, his statement of sympathy with the aims of the revolution which has torn Mexico.

The regeneration of the stricken nation must come from within, Mr. Wilson said; and, in answer for his colleagues and himself, Luis Cabrera, Carranza's Minister of Finance and chairman of the Mexican delegation, asserted that his country was struggling toward the light of free and democratic government.

The meeting was arranged when the President arrived yesterday, summoned to the bedside of his stricken relative, Mrs. Annie E. Howe.

The President went directly to the subject of the Mexican revolution. He was, he said, more familiar than his hearers perhaps realized with the fundamental principles of the struggle for free government in Mexico. He assured them of his deep sympathy with those aims, adding that right-thinking men all over the world must sympathize with such high aspirations. From the brief statement he made the Mexican commissioners realized that the President has kept in personal touch with all that is taking place beyond the Mexican border.

During the conversation Mr. Wilson indicated his comprehension of the great problems, political, economic and social, which Mexico is facing. It was in this connection that he said that regeneration must come from within and that development must be parallel in all three lines.

Mr. Cabrera, in his reply, referred to the United States as leader of the movement for free government and as the tutor to whom Mexico must look in striving for the type of government its people sought. Much had been done, he said, but much also remained to be accomplished before the aims of the revolutionists could be achieved.

A formal statement issued by the commission said Mr. Cabrera had presented a review of political developments in Mexico to show that civil government was being substituted for military rule in territory controlled by the de facto Government. Civil Governors have been installed in ten States and the territory of Lower California, it was said.

"Mr. Cabrera further outlined," the statement continued, "the plan which Gen. Carranza has in mind for the speedy civil reorganization."

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

of the country. He is of the opinion that certain basic social and economical reforms should be carried through as preliminary to the revision of the present Constitution. As soon as conditions permit a constitutional convention will be called for this purpose. Immediately after the revision of the Constitution has been effected provision will be made for elections within the several States of the union, and this will be followed by the Presidential election.

"With this program it is the hope of the Carranza Government to establish the country on a basis which will assure to the Mexican citizen not merely a wider measure of liberty, but guarantee to him an equality of opportunity in the industrial life of the country which he has hitherto not enjoyed."

FORMER G. O. P. SENATOR ANNOUNCES FOR WILSON

New York, Sept. 16.—Former Senator H. C. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, who served eighteen years in the United States Senate as a Republican, announced here that he intends to support President Wilson for re-election. He reached this decision after hearing one of Chas. E. Hughes' speeches.

"I am going to support the President as a Wilson Republican," the former senator told National Chairman Vance C. McCormick, former Senator Hansbrough, who was three times elected to the United States senate by the Republicans of North Dakota, said that he was en route to his home at Devil's Lake and intended to enter the campaign actively in behalf of the Democratic national ticket.

"I am for Wilson because I believe in the principles of Abraham Lincoln rather than a man who represents the special interests and privileged classes as distinguished from the true Democracy of the country," he said.

THE "WAR" STAMP TAXES NOW THING OF THE PAST

War taxes of a documentary and proprietary nature, levied by the law enacted by Congress October 2, 1914, have ceased to be collectable.

Schedule A imposed a tax on bonds, deeds, certificates, bills of lading and other documents. Under this schedule every bridegroom has been compelled to stick a 50-cent stamp on his marriage license. Every deed and other kinds of documents offered for legal registration have been taxed, as have all bills of lading. Even telegrams and long-distance telephone calls, where the tolls exceeded 15 cents, were taxed. The tax on express receipts will no longer have to be paid.

Schedule B laid a stamp tax on race powders, vaseline, medicinal soaps, other cosmetics, perfumes and chewing gum. The tax on cosmetics was 2½ per cent.

That part of the law levying a tax on wines has been modified to the extent that manufacturers will be required to hereafter place stamps on their goods before delivery to retailers.

WORKMAN KILLED BY BEAR—LATTER BLOWN UP

Livingston, Mont., Sept. 14.—Frank Welch, a Government teamster, died to-day in the military hospital at Mammoth Hot Springs, Yellowstone National Park, as a result of a mauling received last Friday night from a bear, according to advices received here to-day.

A few hours later the bear was blown to pieces with dynamite by Welch's companions.

Welch was asleep under a wagon loaded with supplies for the troops in the park when he was attacked by the bear. Two drivers who were with Welch drove the animal off, but, knowing the animal would not remain, they placed dynamite, connected with a small electric battery, under a pile of army bacon, a short distance from camp. When the bear returned the trap was exploded as he nosed the bait.

During the fighting at Verdun it cost $15,000 to take a man's life. In other words it is found that for every $15,000 spent in shells, bombs, aerial torpedoes, machine guns, rifle bullets, etc., one man is killed.—Evansville Courier.

MERENPTHAH IS FOUND AMID EGYPTIAN RUINS

Said To Be Most Magnificent of
All Palaces of Ancient Pharaohs.

Philadelphia, Penn., Sept. 15.—Merenpthah, most magnificent of all palaces of the ancient Pharaohs, has just been discovered in Egypt by the University of Pennsylvania Museum expedition there, according to announcement made in this city to-day. News of the excavation of the home of the Egyptian Emperors which will be received with interest by archaeologists all over the world, came to this city in a letter from Dr. Clarence S. Fisher, head of the Eckley B. Coxe, Jr., expedition to Egypt.

In a letter to officials of the University Museum here, Dr. Fisher told of the discovery of the Palace of Merenpthah, and characterized it the "greatest of all homes of the Egyptian Emperors." Dr. Fisher further announces in his letter that the excessive heat in Egypt has compelled him to give up work in excavating for several months.

Doctor Fisher made his first excavation around the palace of Merenpthah several months ago. His more recent excavations show that the palace is more than twice the size archaeologists believed it to be, thus establishing beyond dispute that it is the "greatest of all palaces."

According to Dr. Fisher's letter, the portion originally excavated seemed to be complete in itself. It contains the famed Biblical throne room where, according to Biblical scholars, Moses and Aaron appeared from time to time before Pharaoh and demanded the liberation of the Israelites.

ANOTHER PROSTRATED RAILROAD HEARD FROM

Nervous prostration, superinduced by excessive prosperity, is evidently impending for the Norfolk & Western.

Its annual report for the past fiscal year shows gross earnings of $57,394,568, an increase of $14,317,542, or 33.31 per cent. over the previous year; net earnings of $23,054,786, an increase of $9,779,323, or 73.66 per cent., and net income of $20,624,059, an increase of $10,214,154, or 98.12 per cent.

The company paid $1,386,642 for investment in physical property, more in dividends on the common stock, appropriated $7,519,183 more and carried forward a credit balance of $16,990,752, which is $2,606,618 more than in the previous year.

An increase of ten millions in net earnings would have seemed prodigious heretofore, but the list of roads enjoying—perhaps we should say "suffering from," considering their recent complaints—suffering from unexpected if not undeserved prosperity, increases daily. After a while this surplus will grow so large that some of it may be used to satisfy the men and some distributed among the shippers.

Pity the poor roads!—Louisville Post.

A SUCKER BORN EVERY MINUTE, IT IS AVERRED

Youngstown, O., Sept. 15.—Joseph Martin, merchant, was the victim of a confidence man to-day to the tune of $700. The stranger visited Martin's store a number of times and dickered to purchase it.

In some manner he induced Martin to show him his money and the merchant produced $700 in bills and handed them over.

The "purchaser" looked at the money and handed it back; at least Martin thought he returned it, but when he looked closer he found what he had been given was merely a bunch of newspaper clippings.

REMARKABLE GROWTH OF BOY IN FEW WEEKS

H. S. Rushmore, of Jamaica, L. I., has a son, Donald, 12 years old. Donald left Jamaica on July 16 for a visit to Mount Beacon, N. Y. He returned July 24.

"When Donald went away," said the father to the World reporter, "he was 4 feet 10 inches in height and weighed 72 pounds. He always had been a light eater. When he got back to-day, Mrs. Rushmore was so amazed at the change in his appearance that we measured him again and found he was 5 feet 2½ inches high and weighed 82 pounds. "A friend of mine who lived in this same house (83 Shelton avenue) sent his 15-year old son last year up to the mountains in Maine and he grew five inches in five weeks."

What starts youngsters to shoot up suddenly like bean poles is one of the mysteries that never has been explained. Young Rushmore's rise in the world has been astonishing—probably record breaking. However, this has been great weather for growing.—Commerce and Finance.

REVENGE FOR WHICH HE WAITED WAS DENIED HIM

Philadelphia, Sept. 15.—All the time that Louis Phon, 45 years old, was serving two and one half years in the Eastern Penitentiary for stealing a ham, he had revenge in his heart. He whispered to his cellmates that when he was released he would "get" the man that sent him there.

A few days ago he was discharged, and last night he went to the home of the man who sent him to prison, a former employer, Captain Charles W. Manley, now Supervisor of Roads in Westtown Township. Phon knocked at the door, and when Captain Manley appeared he said: "I want you to come out and talk to me about some road work."

Captain Manley did not recognize his voice, and when his wife warned him to be careful he picked up his revolver. As he opened the kitchen door Phon opened fire with a revolver, but the bullet struck the screen door and glanced upward over Captain Manley's head. Manley fired one bullet through the screen door, and Phon crumpled and fell backward off the porch, dead.

"Bullet-Proof" Rooms.

Bullet-proof rooms are an advertised feature of certain hotels in Nogales, Texas, according to A. Emerson Jones, of Minneapolis, a Raleigh guest. "The El Paso and Southwestern Railroad," he said, "runs through the city, just as the New York Central runs through Syracuse, dividing the city into two sections. But on the southern side lies Mexico, and during the many days of distress the zip of bullets was a familiar sound to Nogales people and to strangers within their gates. Enterprising hotel folk conceived the idea of making their guests safe by shielding their southern exposed rooms with sheet iron, and were not slow to advertise this 'safety first' thought. Consequently the hostilities not so enterprising were speedily depopulated."—Washington Post.

DEMOCRACY'S BANNER DAY

Campaign Opening at Winchester
ter Most Auspicious Event

Many Thousand People Listen To
Oratory And Enjoy Burgoo
And Barbecued Meats

The formal opening of the Democratic campaign at Winchester, Saturday, was as delightful as the occasion was auspicious. The sun never shone more brightly on the "Old Kentucky Home," the atmosphere was never more delicious and invigorating, a warmer welcome was never extended than by the Democracy of the splendid county of Clark and everything seemed to work together to make the event one of the never to be forgotten by the many thousands of enthusiastic men and women who attended. Every detail for the comfort and enjoyment of their guests had been carefully arranged and nothing left undone by the general chairman, Judge John E. Garner, Judge John M. Stevenson, Senator Abe Rennick, Steve Vaughn, and the able and willing corps of assistants, while the people of town and county vied with each other in doing everything in their power to add to the delights of the day. The city had been decorated in gala attire and flags and bunting floated everywhere.

The fair grounds were selected for the place of speaking, and a shed erected in front of the mammoth amphitheater for the speakers and hundreds of men of prominence. At 10:30 Judge Garner made a stirring and witty address of welcome, followed by Chairman J. Campbell, Cantrill, of the State campaign committee, who thanked in warmest terms the good people for their splendid efforts to make the opening memorable, said a few words of cheer to the people who crowded the amphitheater and filled every conceivable space in all the region aroundabout and introduced Congressman Hardy, of Texas, as the first speaker, who eloquently told of the accomplishments of the administration and urged the retention in office of the man who made them possible and fulfilled every promise of the convention that nominated him. His speech was logical, forceful and vote winning.

Following his address, which was listened to with rapt attention, the onslaught on the feast of burgoo, fried chicken, barbecued beef and lamb, with many other good things, began, and though the charge was heavy and continuous the impression was hardly noticeable and the heavy laden tables would have withstood the charge of several thousands more and still groaned with their weight of well prepared edibles. It was a real feast, from which no one went away empty. On their own initiative and at their own expense, the ladies had prepared another feast in a large tent in honor of the vice president's charming wife, where the speakers and others enjoyed a real banquet, served by beautiful girls and comely matrons and everybody made to feel that it was good to be there. The tent was gaily decorated and the ensemble was beautiful.

The inner man having been satisfied, Gov. Stanley introduced the leading speaker of the day, Vice President Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, who was received with tumultuous applause, and his was a most captivating address, full of hope and confidence. Mr. Marshall is a born orator and possessing the ability to tell an anecdote well, he soon caught his audience which listened to his effort with wild cheers and applause. There are few more popular speakers than Woodrow Wilson's running mate, "the tall to his kite," as he called himself, and his eloquent recital of constructive work accomplished during the three and a half years that the Democrats had been in power, made a lasting impression on the multitude, which drunk in every word with avidity, and seemed fully to agree with him that God had raised up Woodrow Wilson for his great work.

Congressman W. J. Fields then introduced the Hon. Thomas J. Heflin, of Alabama, whose fame as an orator is nation-wide, and for an hour he kept the vast throng applauding or convulsed with laughter at the stories he told so intimately. It was a great speech and kept the crowd to its end, though more than half of it had to stand to hear it.

Chairman A. B. Rouse, of the speakers' bureau, could hardly have made better selection for the occasion as every man of them is master in his line of speech.

The great crowd, which came from many parts of the state and was variously estimated at from 10,000 to 20,000, reluctantly took its leave, filled with enthusiasm and intent on doing all in its power to re-elect Wilson and Marshall for four more years of patriotic service.

There have been many grand openings of Democratic campaigns in Kentucky, but the one at Winchester eclipsed them all and the Democracy of the state owes the people of Clark county a debt they can hardly repay. Everybody at all acquainted with the public spiritedness of those wide-awake citizens, knew that they would strive to outdo all other occasions, and gloriously did they fulfill the confidence. And to them be honor and glory now and always. They certainly emphasized the ambitious little city's place on the map and wrote her name high on the scroll of fame.

Chairman Cantrill expressed his real delight over the auspicious opening of the campaign, that must result in a famous victory for Democracy and is prouder of the county of his congressional district than ever. It was indeed a glorious day for the cause of the people and a forerunner of a victory that will surprise the nation, which has been led to think that Kentucky is a doubtful state.

The enthusiasm engendered by the glorious meeting at Winchester will spread all over Kentucky and with such candidates as Wilson and Marshall and such achievements as the Democratic party has to its credit the old commonwealth ought to be good for the "Tilden majority," which was 60,000. Kentuckians recognize true worth and faithful service and all who love these qualities will vote to retain the man in office who has done so much for the cause of humanity. Up men, and at 'em.

The President Turned the Trick

Candidate Hughes is greatly worried over the way the president succeeded in averting the railroad strike and deplores the passage of laws in advance of investigation. He is, therefore, attempting to belittle the whole business, but he will have his labor for his pains. As Grover Cleveland said on one occasion, "A condition and not a theory," confronted Mr. Wilson, and he did what the whole country applauded him for doing. The Republicans tried to embarrass the President in the matter, but he turned the trick and came out more than a victor and made himself more solid with the people. The laboring people especially are singing the praises of the man who meets every emergency manfully and successfully.

Easy to Satisfy.

The Republican State Campaign Committee professes to be satisfied with the result of the cost of the performance in trying to make a showing for Hughes in this state, another instance of being thankful for small favors. It is doubtful if Hughes made a vote by his speech in Lexington, while it does not admit of a doubt that he lost very many. Neither his speech nor his presence was inspiring and the crowd, motley as it was, evidently expected better things from the candidate of a once great party. Mr. Hughes' visit demonstrated anew and more fully that the Wilson spirit prevails in this state and that it will be given full force and effect on the 7th of November.

Has Another Think Coming.

"I cannot believe that the splendid spirit which has been shown here today is a mere passing enthusiasm, I hope it means that the people of our State realize that the success of the Republican party in national affairs will advance the welfare of the nation, their own state, and their own homes." Thus spoke Mr. Hughes at Lexington. If the one hundred per cent. candidate really believes his own words he has another think coming. Kentuckians are usually polite to visitors and show them courtesy, but they do not accept as truth everything that is told them. Mr. Hughes is likewise mistaken about enthusiasm. It was not great to begin with and was entirely manufactured by the campaign committee and its hirelings. There is nothing about Mr. Hughes or his speeches to enthrall over, and he who seems to sloop over on them does so either for pay or for pretense. Kentucky generally is pretty well satisfied with conditions under Wilson and cannot be made to realize, if such a realization were possible, that return of the Republican party to power would advance their welfare. They believe that return of that party to the control of the government means a return to special privileges by the taxation of many for the benefit of the few. Nay, Mr. Hughes do not permit yourself to be fooled—Kentucky may be doubtful sometimes, but there is no doubt about her this time, she is for Wilson first, last and all times.

The Colonel Disgusted.

Authentic report is that Colonel Roosevelt is much more obsessed with the desire to defeat Wilson than the election of Hughes, which he regards as a secondary consideration. The Colonel's antipathy for Wilson is because of the fact that the president has eclipsed him in the service of the country and relegated him from the front page and from the limelight. It is also said that Roosevelt is dissatisfied with the Hughes performance in the west, that he is almost ready to quit playing second fiddle in the swat fly campaign, as he calls it. Instead of talking Americanism, he says Hughes' talks civil service reform and instead of denouncing the German American alliance, denounces extravagance in governmental expenditure. He believes he has been tricked and is almost ready to quit. The Democrats, however, will object as he is making more votes for Wilson than it is possible for him to make for Hughes.

ENTERS LIKE A THIEF IN DEAD OF THE NIGHT

Devoid of All Pity, Catarrh Fastens Its Clutch on Its Victims Unawares.

Catarrh is one of the most prevalent of all diseases. Why? Because it steals upon its victim like a thief in the night. To be forewarned is to be forearmed and ready to combat the condition, but catarrh gives no warning.

Before you know it you have catarrh. Catarrh usually is very hard to overcome.

Catarrh affects almost every organ in the body and will finally produce a condition known as systemic catarrh. The circulation becomes poor and the organs suffer. The patient has a general despondent feeling. Sometimes catarrh resembles chronic malaria and again it resembles nervous prostration. The kidneys become affected, and the bladder and the stomach. Then come indigestion, pains and cramps after eating, kidney affections which so frequently cause backaches, especially upon arising in the morning, and many other ills too numerous to mention.

At the first sign of catarrh you should do something to check its course. The most reasonable, rational treatment is with a tonic; one that will aid digestion, enrich the blood and build up the muscles.

Hundreds of thousands of people have proclaimed Tanlac an excellent remedy for catarrh. First aid should be through the stomach, causing good digestion and from this "hot bed" of human ills, good influence is sent to every portion of the body. Tanlac is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients selected for their purity and potency and gathered in many parts of the world.

Tanlac may be obtained in Hartford at the Ohio County Drug Co.

Tanlac may be obtained in the following nearby towns: Beaver Dam, Z. Wilbur Mitchell; Centertown, L. C. Morton & Son; McHenry, Williams Coal Co.; Ceralvo, C. R. Fulkerson; Cromwell, Wallace & Porter; Banock, Cook & Co.; Rockport, Harrell Bros.; Nelson, Nelson Creek Coal Co.; Livermore, J. F. Smith; Island, A. R. Pollock; Fordsville, J. D. Cooper; Olaton, J. B. Canan.—Advertisement.

Eight-Hour Day Safest.

Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant and philanthropist, suggests that railroad men shall actually work eight hours a day and no more to lessen the frequent cause of accident, overwork. In a ten-hour factory day most accidents occur just before quitting time, at noon and night. On railroads, long hours are dangerous to the men and the public. This plan is worth considering. It is one way to make the shorter day pay for itself, in safer railroadings.—[New York World.

A GOOD HORSE FEED— THE FEEDING OF COLTS

In comparison with any of the grain rations, oats are the best single grain ration for both mature horses and colts and mules. There is no other grain so safe to feed and from which such satisfactory results are obtainable. The stockmen of Clemson College advise, however, that it is absolutely necessary that oats be clean and entirely free from mold in order to obtain best results in feeding to colts. "Musty" oats are dangerous for colts.

A fair allowance of oats for colts after weaning is as follows:

Up to one year of age, from 2 to 3 pounds daily. From one to two years, 4 to 5 pounds daily. From two to three years, 7 to 8 pounds daily.

The best way to feed oats is in the whole grain, the expense of crushing not being justified unless colts suffer in teething, in which case it is advisable to feed steamed crushed oats, which are very nourishing and appetizing. It is always wise to feed plenty of roughage to growing colts. Feeding concentrated feeds in excess is discouraged, as it is important that the digestive tract be developed by distending it during the growing period. Ungainly, large-barreled colts may annoy the feeder, but this condition always disappears with maturity.

Proper feeding of colts should always be accompanied by plenty of outdoor exercise for the young animal. In no way can a colt be ruined so easily and surely as by liberal feeding with lack of exercise. Experience proves that close confinement and the raising of good colts do not go together.—[Home and Farm.

ASKED DAD TO WHIP HIM AND ATER'S REJOINDER

A young lady, her cheeks flushed with indignation and her eyes flashing fire, burst in upon her parents and demanded in no uncertain terms that papa immediately go and lick a certain smart young man in this town. "Why papa, he flirted with me. He asked, 'Which way, little one?' and offered to follow me. I want him whipped. O, if I were only a man!"

Mama naturally got dad's hat and told him where the six-shooter lay hidden away. But papa didn't take the hint.

"Daughter," he said, calling the girl to his side, "No one on this earth is more interested in you than your old dad. No one is quicker to rise to your defense. Now listen. This very interest has led me to study you and this is what I have learned."

"You go down the street very scantily dressed. You apparently deliberately expose as much of your person as is necessary to appeal to the carnal instinct of a man. Your lovely neck, a large portion of your well developed breast, your arms and by means of a short and transparent hose, a goodly share of your lower limbs, are exposed to view."

"That part of your body that is all partly covered is clothed in a way that every curve and angle is out in bold relief. Then when you pass a man or group of men, you giggle, toss your head and perhaps remark to your girl companion that 'This old town is the slowest town that you ever saw.' And if some man challenges you, you want him shot."

Stop the First Cold.

A cold does not get well of itself. The process of wearing out a cold wears you out, and your cough becomes serious if neglected. Hacking coughs drain the energy and sap the vitality. For 47 years the happy combination of soothing antiseptic balsams in Dr. King's New Discovery has healed coughs and relieved congestion. Young and old can testify to the effectiveness of Dr. King's New Discovery for coughs and colds. Buy a bottle to-day at your druggist, 50c.

Outside Of That.

Extreme cruelty is alleged, Mr. Ellis charges that his wife found fault with him every day; that she had told him that she hated him and never thought much of him; that she used vile and obscene language; that she had told him that she could kill him with a clear conscience; that she refused to wash the dishes for several days at a time; that she would not sweep or make the beds; that for the last four months she had been away from home until midnight nearly every night; and if he asked where she went he was told it was none of his business; she made him go to bed early and then she would tiptoe out of the house. Outside of that they apparently were perfectly happy.—[Hillsdale (Mich.) News.

A TWICE-TOLED TALE

One Of Interest To Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of a Madisonville man is confirmed after four years.

H. T. Howard, Madisonville, Ky., says: "I was annoyed by attacks of lame back and pains across my loins for fully two years. I was certain that there was something the matter with my kidneys and I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They were the first medicine that gave me relief."

Results That Remain. Over four years later Mr. Howard said: "I haven't had occasion to use a kidney medicine in five years and I gladly confirm my former endorsement."

AN OHIO COUNTY GIRL ENDS LIFE WITH PISTOL

Lived In St. Louis at Time—She Formally Resided At Magan.

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—Mrs. Mae Martin, twenty-two years old, who came to St. Louis from Owensboro, Ky., recently, committed suicide by shooting herself in the left breast with a revolver at her home, 703 North Fifteenth street, late last night.

In one hand the police found the revolver and in the other a note addressed to a man. The note said she was tired of living alone.

Ten minutes before Mrs. Martin killed herself she met two patrolmen in front of her home and asked them where she could buy a stamp. Her body was removed to the morgue.

The police found a note asking that her mother, Mrs. S. D. Taylor, Magan, Ohio county, Ky., be notified.

Note.—The Mrs. Martin referred to in the preceding item was formerly Miss Gola Taylor, daughter of Mrs. S. D. Taylor, who lives about one and a half miles from Magan Station, in Ohio county. The father was shot and killed in Magan about three years ago. The family has lived in the Magan neighborhood for the past fifteen years, according to information received from there.

A LARGE INCREASE IN NET RAILWAY REVENUES

Washington, Sept. 18.—Net revenues from operations of $1,176,804,001 for the year ending June 30 compared with $850,402,433 during 1915 for all railroads having revenues of $1,000,000 a year or over, are shown in the Interstate Commerce Commission's report. The net revenue per mile was $5.134 for the current year, compared with $3.763 for last year.

Railway operating revenues for the year aggregated $3,396,508,224; operating expenses, $2,220,004,232; tax accruals, $146,754,477; uncollectable revenues, $867,720, and operating income, $1,029,241,304. For the month of June only the net revenue from railway operating was $103,451,443.

The figures for the year show the railroads' gross revenue from freight was $2,409,393,699; from passenger service, $673,472,119; mails, $69,057,967; express, $81,014,684, and other transportation over $97,000,000. Of the year's net revenue from operations, $516,061,320 was in the Eastern district; $165,822,562 in the Southern district, and $494,920,119 in the Western district.

HENRY FORD ANNOUNCES HIS SUPPORT OF WILSON

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 16.—Henry Ford stated here yesterday that he and his neighbors were for President Wilson because they constantly see so much good in the things he is doing.

"Because of the many good things President Wilson has done I think he should be commended and heartily appreciated," said Mr. Ford.

"Every neighbor you meet will tell you the good things in the administration of President Wilson. I feel just as these people do about what he has done and realize keenly that his great neutrality policy during the European war has had the patent successful result of keeping this country at peace."

"The efforts of his opponents to try and make political capital because of President Wilson's determination not to measure swords with poor, deluded Mexico, have already ended in distinct failure."

Much Beer Destroyed.

The authorities of Webster county destroyed 774 gallons of beer by pouring it into the waters of Hammond creek, near Providence, Thursday.

The beer came into possession of the authorities through a raid made on an alleged "jingo joint." One hundred and seventy-two cases containing 6,192 bottles were confiscated.

J. C. Shelton had been arrested, fined and sentenced to jail on a charge of violating the prohibition law. He had taken an appeal from the verdict and pending the appeal left the county, and therefore did not appear to protest against the destruction of the beer.

Don't slow down on the road to success and wait for the other fellow to get ahead.

EQUITY NEWS.

We have met a number of farmers and farmers' wives who are preparing an exhibit for the Fair. County fairs have the hearty endorsement of the American Society of Equity, especially agricultural exhibits. They encourage our farmers to experiment and the result is beneficial, practical knowledge. It also stimulates stock raising and encourages our people to take more interest in stock breeding.

I am of the opinion that some of our farmers are "stock poor"; that is, they have too many horses and mules to feed during the winter. A Kentucky farmer naturally loves fine horses and mules and he loves them so well he forgets sometimes how expensive it is to keep them in winter. Why not get up a carload or two of your fine farm mules, take them to Southern Georgia and sell them to Georgia cotton farmers? A good pair of young Kentucky mules will bring you right around $500.

Mr. Shep Williams, of Liberty, is "cotton crazy." He has 17 acres this year. He planted it on his very thinnest land—no fertilizer—and will get six or seven bales. Mr. Williams has been experimenting with cotton for six years and says there is no doubt about the practicability of growing cotton in Ohio county. The Equity Man is from the cotton country—Georgia—and he is of the same opinion. I have seen plenty of land here that will produce a bale to the acre with one or two hundred pounds of fertilizer. It is my opinion that it would beat tobacco "all hollow."

Mr. T. M. Bennett was chosen president of a new local organization at Union Tuesday night of last week. He is a good farmer and a most excellent citizen. But there are lots of good ones at old Union.

Bro. Tom Balmain is "piloting" the Equity Man over Ohio county. There is probably no man in the county more beloved. He is true-blue to every cause that promises moral and spiritual uplift, and permanent and abiding prosperity.

The Equity Man can say, with the confidence of accurate knowledge, that the Society of Equity will pool tobacco at Hartford. Half enough to establish the pool has already been secured and I have scarcely touched the real tobacco country. At two meetings last week every man present who grew tobacco signed with the Equity.

"Meet me at the Fair."
